Transition Programs Near Lexington

Ages 18-22 | Employment, independent living, community participation, and further education.

LABBB Transition Program

Post-grade 12 transition programming

Address: Program based at Belmont High School; other LABBB programs operate in nearby towns. Central office: 70 Blanchard Road, Suite 206, Burlington, MA 01803.

Combines functional academics and community instruction with supported work experiences. Skills include budgeting, travel, time management, social interaction, and independent living. Contact LABBB to identify the appropriate classroom and visiting address.

Visit LABBB Transition Program website

LABBB RISE / Middlesex Community College

Ages 18-22 | Supported college participation

Address: LABBB central office: 70 Blanchard Road, Suite 206, Burlington, MA 01803. MCC Bedford campus: 591 Springs Road, Bedford, MA 01730; confirm the assigned campus with LABBB.

Offers selected college classes, campus activities, educational coaching, and peer mentoring alongside community work experiences. This is a separate program from CASE RISE.

Visit LABBB RISE / Middlesex Community College website

Cotting School - Capstone

Ages 18-22 | Individualized transition education

Address: 453 Concord Avenue, Lexington, MA 02421.

Serves students with learning and communication disabilities, physical challenges, and complex medical needs. Transition learning includes daily living, self-advocacy, community participation, therapies, and supported vocational experiences.

Visit Cotting School - Capstone website

Milestones Day School & Transition Program

Ages 18-22 | Year-round therapeutic program

Address: 410 Totten Pond Road, Waltham, MA 02451.

Provides transition education with integrated clinical support, community-based instruction, and college dual-enrollment opportunities. Speech-language, occupational therapy, and psychology services support individualized goals.

Visit Milestones Day School & Transition Program website

More Transition Options

Nearby programs with different approaches and levels of support.

CASE Collaborative - RISE

Ages 18-22 | Moderate to severe disabilities

Address: Colebrook School: 8 Post Office Square, Suite 201, Acton, MA 01720 (listed school mailing address; confirm arrival location).

Community-based education includes job-coached internships, functional academics, cooking, financial literacy, communication, and leisure skills. Offers a student-run business and opportunities for community-college dual enrollment.

Visit CASE Collaborative - RISE website

SEEM Collaborative - Foundations for Life

Ages 18+ after grade 12 | Community-based transition

Address: Central office: 92 Montvale Avenue, Suite 3500, Stoneham, MA 02180. Contact SEEM for the current program-site address.

Supports employment preparation, independent living, social skills, and college access, including dual enrollment. Designed for eligible students with IEPs who benefit from social-emotional and therapeutic support.

Visit SEEM Collaborative - Foundations for Life website

ACCEPT Education Collaborative

Ages 18-22 | Transition Program

Address: ACCEPT Center for Learning & Growth: 4 Tech Circle, Natick, MA 01760.

Prepares students for employment, further education, independent living, and adult services. Offers community internships, job coaching, daily living and travel skills, therapies, AAC technology, and nursing support.

Visit ACCEPT Education Collaborative website

Nashoba Learning Group

School services through age 22 | Autism support

Address: 10 Oak Park Drive, Bedford, MA 01730. Additional site: 170 Lexington Road, Billerica, MA 01821; confirm the appropriate location.

A specialized school with vocational and life-skills training for autistic students, rather than a standalone 18-22 program. Instruction builds skills for participation at home, in the community, and at work.

Visit Nashoba Learning Group website

Contact programs to confirm eligibility, referral requirements, openings, transportation, and current locations. Office addresses are labeled where a classroom location needs confirmation. Listings are informational and are not endorsements.